

THE TRIPOD

This easy to build surf tower, constructed with timber will provide for an elevated platform for lifeguards to keep an eye on the beach. Its angular form is based on the repetition of triangles which create a sense of movement and energy. It is a simple structure that fulfils its purpose effectively